

AEOLIAN
HALL
Season of 1921-1922

PROGRAM PUBLISHED BY THE LAHEY-DALY CO., AEOLIAN HALL, NEW YORK

A Bank Statement that any Man or Woman can Understand

The Corn Exchange Bank

NEW YORK

Statement of November 15, 1921

The Bank Owes to Depositors - - - $207,384,916.89

A conservative banker always has this indebtedness in mind, and he arranges his assets so as to be able to meet any request for payment.

For this Purpose We Have:

[1] Cash - - - - - $35,559,670.90

[Gold, Bank Notes and Specie] and with legal depositories returnable on demand.

[2] Checks on Other Banks - - - 21,494,469.50

Payable in one day.

[3] U. S. Government Securities - 65,824,204.48

[4] Loans to Individuals and Corporations 27,231,592.55

Payable when we ask for them, secured by collateral of greater value than the loans.

[5] Bonds - - - - - 22,741,447.09

Of railroads and other corporations, of first quality and easily salable.

[6] Loans - - - - - 46,893,443.85

Payable in less than three months on the average, largely secured by collateral.

[7] Bonds and Mortgages and Real Estate 1,001,998.82

[8] Twenty-four Banking Houses - 3,896,361.91

All located in New York City.

Total to Meet Indebtedness - - - $224,643,189.10

[9] This Leaves a Surplus of - - - $17,258,272.21

Which becomes the property of the Stockholders after the debts to the depositors are paid, and is a guarantee fund upon which we solicit new deposits and retain those which have been lodged with us for many years.

Our listed resources, enumerated in this statement do not and cannot include those assets of friendliness and helpfulness which this bank has in the personnel of its board of directors, its officers and employees. These are assets which pay dividends to our patrons in service and satisfaction.

The above is but one of many letters from nationally known artists extolling the virtues of Kranich & Bach's distinctive qualities—the value of any piano can rest on no higher judgment than that of the great artist.

But The Kranich & Bach is not only instrumentally supreme. Structurally, it is a thing of beauty, combining every pianistic essential for the music-loving home.

STEINWAY

The Instrument of the Immortals

FOR four generations the Steinway family has looked upon the making of its pianos as an art, rather than a business. It is the Steinway ideal to make the finest piano that can be made, and to give it to the world at the lowest cost possible and upon the most convenient terms possible. Any Steinway piano may be purchased with a small cash deposit, the balance to be paid within a period of two years.

Prices: $875 and up
Used pianos accepted in exchange
Also pianos for rent

Non-Professional

Your musical endeavors should not be impaired by reason of an inferior and faulty instrument. You owe it to yourself and your art to make an exhaustive examination of the old 'cellos available before selecting your instrument. My collection of Bergonzi, Amati, Maggini, Testori, Gabrielli, Guarnerius, Rocca, etc., is worthy of your most serious consideration and scrutiny without obligation.
